Kia ora e te whaanau,
Welcome to the last week of term.

Kai Tahi

This Wednesday is whaea Louise's last day at the kura. She began her teaching journey studying to becoming a teacher and then onwards to securing a position in the kura whaanau. Since then she has dedicated her time and skills to our tamariki. Louise has decided to take time off from teaching to be with her tamariki and whaanau,

She is happy to return as a relieving teacher.

We wish her well.

We are having a shared lunch on Wednesday and we will end the day with a Easter Egg Hunt.

We ask whaanau to please provide a plate for the kai tahi and an Easter Egg for the hunt.

Whaanau Uiuitanga

Thank you to our whaanau who attended the uiuitanga.

Working together as a whaanau for our tamariki.

Polyfest

On Wednesday, we have a group of tamariki attending the Polyfest with whaea Gaylene and whaea Pamela. We hope that they will enjoy themselves.

We understand that we may have a number of tamariki attending the polyfest with their whaanau to support their tuakana.
